

Thanks to all Involved

As most of you already know The Night of Music & Song, was by any measure, a resounding success. The event was almost a sell-out and feedback from participants and audience alike has been positive and that speaks volumes in a time where many entertainment venues are struggling to attract patrons.

Well then what made our concert so special and why did it stand out from the rest?

Jean & I both firmly believe that it was because of the people in our congregation and indeed in our community generally, who when invited, were prepared to get involved and support us. So a big thank you must go firstly to all the artists for their inspirational contributions. A magnificent effort by so many dedicated people!

Then there were those who simply came along to enjoy the evening. They contributed to the warm welcoming atmosphere which persisted throughout the evening.

When it comes to those who were involved in the planning and setup for the night, there were just too many to attempt to name them individually, but they all know who they are and they all know that they contributed in their own particular way, to a very successful night, which in turn is going to benefit our parish.

Would you all please accept our sincere thanks, for the effort and in some cases genuine sacrifices that you made in order to be part of this wonderful event. Also if you have friends and family who were involved in any way but who are not here today please convey our thanks to them as well.

On another front we would also like to thank all those who stepped up and went way beyond expectations on Friday to help us deal with Jean's medical crisis. Your help and assistance was truly inspirational.

Kind Regards to you all

Len & Jean Bailey
