

An evening about the end of life

Practical considerations in the presence of dying.

Talking about dying is never easy. However, it is something that we will all face at some point. Even though we all want the dying process to be a peaceful one our reluctance to discuss it makes this a difficult goal.

Come and spend an evening with:

Dr Louis Christie

Palliative Care Service Doctor

The evening will enable you to learn about the commonly asked questions, general information about common incurable illnesses and to ask all the tough questions.

The evening will be held on the:
