Thought for the Week from Mothers Union Australia

Sunday 25 November 2018 - A HEART FOR JUSTICE

A perpetrator is sentenced and the victim is to have 'justice'. Holy Scripture has a very different notion of Justice. It is relational rather than forensic, forgiveness rather than retribution. The deepest insight of the Old Testament and the real truth underlying the Letter to the Romans is that God is always seeking to restore the sinner to goodness. God grant us the humility to see our own heart` and understanding of the weaknesses of others that we may truly learn to be good and seek after righteousness.

Learn to do good, seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Isaiah 1:17

In Guinea the distribution of wealth and natural resources is unequal yet members of Mothers' Union work to bring the Lord's justice to those in need. Prisoners depend on their gifts of food and clothing for survival and are sustained by their visits and prayers. Members support priests and their families, the sick and the congregational families and in so doing strive in the way of righteousness.

I'd like to begin by acknowledging the Traditional Owners of the land on which we meet for Church today. I would also like to pay my respects to Elders past, present and future. We especially want to pay our respects to the Aboriginal women and Aboriginal Christian women who have made such a contribution to their community and this Nation's History.

Let us grow in Love together.

From the Rectors Desk

Which speaks to you and why?

1662 Anglican BCP

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done
in earth, as it is in heaven:
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

1988 Anglican BCP

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

Had the opportunity to use both in pastoral settings this week, and it has been a blessing using both.
