The Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

From the Rector:

Last February, our parish review using the National Church Life Survey material established groups to look at Faith Sharing, Belonging, and Leadership. The first two groups have been beavering away on important matters.

The Leadership group met last week to begin thinking about what leadership means for us. It is critical to church life; for problem solving; promoting goals; encouraging individuals to work together and respond to new opportunities; is vital for resolving conflict and best practice in the church. It is a primary catalyst for change and for churches to move forward. In the Acts of the Apostles, these aspects of leadership were found among leaders in the early church.

Different styles of leadership were discussed within the group. A generation ago, church leadership was confined largely to clergy. The 1970's helped the church understand again that, as baptised members of the body of Christ, all of us share in leadership. We are reminded in 1 Corinthians 12 that the church is like a body made up of different parts, each with different functions. We all participate in the life of the community of faith, with a need to trust each in our life together.

Therefore discerning the gifts and skills that we each have is critical. Spiritual Gifts seminars have helped people reflect on this. However, it is one thing to recognise a gift, but a very different thing to put that gift into use.

The Leadership group meets again next Wednesday. It is already talking about the need within the life of the church to find ways of mentoring people into different functions and activities within the life of our parish community, where their gifts have been discerned.

Please continue to pray for one another as we share leadership and find new ways of "being church" together. It is part of discerning our future and mission.

To our visitors

Welcome to our parish community.

We hope you are refreshed by your worship here today.
 Please stay for a cup of tea after the services if you are able.

Prayer Response:

Lord of all creation,
let your kingdom come in us.

In our prayers:

- Chaplaincies at Bathurst Gaol and Dubbo Juvenile Justice Centre
- Bishop Ian and diocesan leaders
- Resolution to conflict and fear in the nations of the earth
- All who lead in our nation
- People who live with emotional, physical and spiritual challenges
- People on holidays and emergency service personnel

ABM Reflection

2 Kings 5: 1-14; Psalm 30;
Galatians 6: 1-18; Luke 10: 1-24

Naaman is insulted at being asked to do something easy, the psalmist's security is shaken, the Galatians are warned to avoid complacency and personal pride, and Jesus' disciples are reminded that the source of true joy is being part of God's kingdom (v 20). Humility is never easy. Our challenge is to do our best, to overcome difficulties, to succeed ... and still to give God the glory.

Today's question: What personal successes do I need to surrender to God today?

- Prayer: I offer you my life, O Lord, as a sacrifice to your glory.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Weekday Worship

The Daily Offices are being prayed in the Choir Vestry, as well as the Wednesday and Saturday services.

The Sunday 10.30am congregation meets in the Memorial Hall.

Name Badges

You may like to invite Andy, his wife Amanda and two-year-old Abigail around for a meal. They have a great desire to get to know us all.

Please speak with Father Frank if you would like more information.
